

Learning with Numbers

*Materiały pomocnicze
do nauki języka angielskiego*

mgr Maria Węglińska

Dear Learners,
You are going to learn with numbers
We are going to be at your side
Ready to help you, ready to guide
God bless you,
Guardian Angels

Part 1. Talking with numbers

Number One
Is having a run.

He usually runs in the morning.

He often laughs.

Number Two
Is laughing at you.

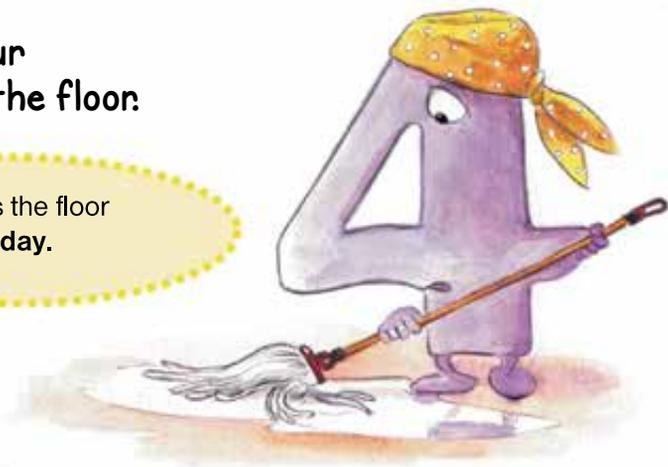

Number Three
Is climbing up the tree.

He sometimes climbs
to the top of the tree.

Number Four Is washing the floor.

He washes the floor
4 times a day.

Number Five Is learning to drive.

He is angry with his car.
He can't start it!

Number Six Is doing tricks.

His tricks always make me feel surprised.

Let's talk!

Present simple

- A. Does No 15 have a landline phone ?
B. No, he doesn't.
A. What type of phone does he usually use ?
B. He usually uses a mobile phone.
A. Who does he often phone?
B. He regularly phones Mr No 16.
A. How often does he phone him?
B. He phones him once a week.
A. And how about you?
What type of phone do you have?
B. I've got a smartphone.
A. Do you often call your friends?
B. Yes, I do.

mobile phone

landline phone

smartphone

Let's talk!

Present simple and Present continuous

- A. Look at No 15. What can you see in this picture?
B. I can see a funny man shaped like number fifteen.
A. What's his name?
B. I think his first name is Number and his surname is Fifteen.
A. What is he doing?
B. He's making a phone call on his mobile.
A. Do you often call your friends?
B. Yes, I do.
A. And what are you doing now?
B. I'm learning English.

Let's talk!

Past continuous and Past simple

- A. What was No 10 doing at 10 o'clock yesterday?
B. He was writing a note with his new fountain pen.
A. Did you read his note?
B. No, I didn't. The only thing I could see was the first word at the top of his note.
A. Do you remember this word?
B. Yes. He wrote the word ten.
A. Ten?! Very strange!
B. It isn't strange.
His favourite number is ten and his name is Number Ten.
A. Oh, I see.

